Ingram Micro Inc requested transfer of billing ownership from Pax 8

Ingram Micro Inc has submitted a transfer request indicating that you'd like to change the billing ownership of your Azure subscriptions, reservations, savings plans and/or new commerce license-based subscriptions.

Pax 8 has received the request and will select the Azure subscriptions, reservations, savings plans and/or new commerce license-based subscription to be transferred. We will notify you once the transfer is complete.

Note: If you'll be transferring prepaid Azure reservations, then your new partner won't be able to cancel these or get a refund once they're transferred. Azure savings plan purchases can't be cancelled or refunded. License-based transfers do not enable the new partner to cancel after the transfer. If you don't wish to proceed with this transfer, please contact the new partner. If you have questions or concerns with this transfer request, contact Ingram Micro Inc or see additional options.
